Ukraine's drones hit major Russian refinery: Officials

ILLIA NOVIKOV ■ Kyiv

Ukrainian drones struck a major refinery deep inside Russia, military officials said on Thursday, the fourth in three days in Kyiv's monthslong campaign to choke Moscow's vital oil sector.

Russia is one of the world's biggest energy producers, with oil providing an economic mainstay as its army tries to push deeper into Ukraine in a slow and costly advance more than four years after Moscow launched its full-scale invasion.

The attacks have dented Russia's refining capacity, bringing shortages at gas stations. Kyiv officials say the onslaught seeks to compel Russian President Vladimir Putin to seek a peace deal. There is no sign that strategy is working. Ukraine's General Staff said its forces struck the Gazprom Neft refinery, a Salavat oil refining and petrochemical complex in Russia's republic of Bashkortostan overnight, causing a fire at the facility.

The complex, located south of the border, is one of Russia's largest oil refining and petrochemical facilities, the General Staff said in a Telegram post. The plant processes up to 74 million barrels of oil annually, producing gasoline, diesel and other products, it said. Russia's Bashkortostan governor, Rady Khabirov, said only that a drone attack wounded two civilians and started a fire in an industrial zone of Salavat.

Wildberries, Russia's biggest online retailer, said its warehouses have repeatedly been struck by Ukrainian drones, said a fire started at one of its facilities in the Salavat industrial zone after the overnight attack. The company said the facility was evacuated but that goods were not being stored there.

The attack came a day after Ukrainian anti-ship missiles and drones blitzed a major Russian naval base on the Black Sea coast.

Elsewhere, four explosive experts from Russia's Emergency Ministry and a security guard were killed Thursday after an unspecified Ukrainian weapon exploded in Sevastopol, a port city in illegally annexed Crimea, the Russian-installed governor of Sevastopol Mikhail Razvozhayev said.

They were inspecting the site of a Ukrainian attack when "an enemy weapon detonated", he said. It was not possible to independently verify either side's reports. Meanwhile, a Russian refinery in Orsk that was hit by Ukrainian drones earlier this week has suspended operations, Orenburg region Governor Yevgeny Soltsev said on Thursday. He said that "key infrastructure, which cannot be restored at this time" was struck, including foreign equipment, and "taking (international) sanctions into account," the repairs could take up to six months, Soltsev said in a rare public admission in Russia of the problems Ukrainian attacks are causing.

Ukraine's General Staff had reported striking the Orsk refinery, in Russia's Orenburg region near the border with Kazakhstan, on Tuesday. Russia has responded by hammering Ukraine with ballistic missiles, jet-powered drones and glide bombs, all of which are powerful and hard to intercept. The strikes have killed more than 16,000 civilians since the war began, according to the United Nations.

Russian attacks featuring 133 long-range strike drones killed at least four people and wounded eight others across Ukraine overnight from Wednesday to on Thursday, officials said. (AP)

Taliban detains six staff of human right group

ASSOCIATED PRESS ■ Ankara

Afghanistan's Taliban authorities have "forcibly disappeared" six staff members of a local organisation working on women's and children's rights, a US-based advocacy group said, following a separate UN report that two Afghan women employees of its mission in the country were detained.

The reported detentions come as Afghanistan's Taliban rulers prepare to mark the fifth anniversary of their return to power on Saturday.

The six men — employees of the Women and Children Legal Research Foundation — were detained after they were told to come to their office to retrieve confiscated laptops and phones, Human Rights Watch said.

BNP nominates Mirza Fakhrul Islam as Bangladesh President

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ Dhaka

The ruling Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP) on Thursday nominated its secretary general Mirza Fakhrul Islam Alamgir as its candidate for the country's presidency, setting the stage for his election as the next head of state.

The 78-year-old veteran politician resigned as BNP secretary general and from its highest policy-making standing committee after being nominated, senior joint secretary general Ruhul Kabir Rizvi announced. "It is with great pleasure that I announce on behalf of the Bangladesh Nationalist Party that our dedicated secretary general, Mirza Fakhrul Islam Alamgir, has become the BNP's presidential candidate," he said.

The nomination was announced after a meeting of senior BNP leaders with Prime Minister Tarique Rahman, who is also the party chairman, at the Prime Minister's Secretariat.

Under the Election Commission's schedule, Alamgir was required to submit his nomination papers by 4:00 pm on Thursday. Bangladesh's main opposition Jamaat-e-Islami has also fielded the party's ally partner Liberal Democratic Party (LDP) Chairman Colonel (ret'd) Oli Ahmad. Ahmad has already submitted his nomination papers to the Election Commission. The presidential election comes after former president Mohammed Shahabuddin resigned on July 24, citing serious health problems, about two years before the end of his term. He was a longtime ally of deposed prime minister Sheikh Hasina. Under the Constitution, a new president is required to be elected within 90 days of the office falling vacant.

Parliamentary Speaker Hafiz Uddin Ahmad is currently serving as acting president, as required under the Constitution following a vacancy in the office. The Constitution provides for the president to be elected by Parliament. The BNP, which was voted to power in the February 12 elections, currently commands a two-thirds majority in Parliament, putting Alamgir in a strong position to secure the presidency.
